

1894.

23. Breakfast storm on the Southern coast.
It appears that the barometer fell still lower on this day at Liverpool than with us - His data in the Lancaster paper that on Monday Evening the 22nd, it stood at 6 O'clock at 29. on Tuesday Morning at 28.10, and at 4 P.M. on that day at 27.90.

Hour.	Weather.	Wind.	Therm.	Bar.
21	calm & pleasant morning, very clear & pleasant day, calm & gloomy,	fair S.E. fair S.E. fair	40 29.1 1/2 45 29.1 1/2 39 29.1 1/2
22	not night - calm & gloomy morning, showery day, calm & clear night,	fair S. fair N.E. fair	41 29.0 43 29.0 1/2 36 29.1
23	very stormy from an early hour, not a bit distant day, very gloomy & not night,	fair S.E. fair S.E. fair S.E.	44 28.6 1/2 48 28.3 46 28.1 1/2
24	gloomy morning, not gloomy day, dark & not night,	fair W. fair N.W. fair	45 28.5 46 28.6 1/2 44 28.9
25	gloomy with showers, disagreeable cold day, gloomy & unpleasant night,	fair W. fair W. fair N.W.	44 29.1 42 29.2 38 29.4
26	gloomy & cold morning, changeable day, cold & gloomy night,	fair N.W. fair W. fair N.E.	38 29.5 41 29.3 1/2 38 29.6
27	calm & heavy morning, very gloomy but mild day, calm & gloomy,	fair S.E. fair S.E. fair S.	39 29.6 1/2 41 29.6 38 29.6	